

Sharon McFarlane - Bio - Masterclass

After receiving a BFA in Acting from the University of Alberta, Sharon acted in theatres across the country including the Citadel, Sudbury Theatre Centre, Magnus Theatre, Western Canada Theatre and the Stratford Festival. Sharon has also worked in film and television with credits including: The Boys, Late Bloomer, Law & Order Toronto, Accused, Saving Hope, Murdoch Mysteries, Spotlight and many more.

As an instructor, she teaches the on-camera acting program at Randolph College for the Arts in Toronto. At Armstrong Acting Studios, she guides actors of all ages and levels to develop their acting skills on camera. She has been an artist-educator with the TDSB, Shakesperience and Lakeshore Arts as well as being a long time teacher at Young People's Theatre.

Sharon is excited to be back with the Masterclass Series 2026!